HOUSE
RESOLUTION No. ____

Introduced by: Lytle

A RESOLUTION urging the establishment of an interim study committee to study the feasibility of establishing the Indiana Forestry Advisory Council.

Whereas, Our trees and forests are essential to our health and welfare;

Whereas, A properly designed, high quality planting and maintenance program for our forests will benefit our communities by providing cooler summer air, warmer homes in winter, and cleaner air and water; and

Whereas, The council, if established, would assess the state's forestry resources, project current and future demands for timber products, and consider economic development:
